He Is Right Mad At Us

We received a letter this week reading: "Stop my paper. I have taken it for twelve years, but don't agree with an article published last week," etc. Hully chee! Here is a man who has agreed with everything we have done for twelve years, which encourages us to think we are not the only derned fool in existence. Why, my dear old friend, we haven't agreed with ourselves scarce a month in those twelve years, we always have a kick coming about something, but unlike you, we can not "stop the paper" unless we stop eating, and even with the H. C. L. we like to keep up that practice. Don't quit, my friend, we must be pretty close together when we disagree on only one subject in twelve years. We know you must be wise, handsome and intellectual like ourselves, and such people as us are getting so scarce we should cultivate each other instead of busting things up. Come again.

A social meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held in the parlors of the Covenant Baptist church, 60th place and Normal blvd., Thursday afternoon.

Fred C. Allen, the veteran mail collector, is able to be about again after a month's enforced vacation caused by the "flu" and complications.

A healthy brick wrapped in old newspapers was the means thieves employed in breaking one of the plate glass windows in the Co-operative Tailors' display windows Tuesday night. An overcoat pattern is all that is missed and Abe offers to make up the coat if the fellow will call.

Something Is Going to Drop

It may not be today, or tomorrow or even the day after, but the present pace cannot be maintained forever. Rents higher than ever before in the history of our country; wages double what they ever were before; food products exceedingly high, and wearing apparel reaching the sky line, and yet no one is satisfied and are demanding higher wages, higher rents, greater profits and more money. This means that the day of reckoning is not far off, and the wise ones are preparing for it by holding on to what they have, saving for the rainy day, and cutting out extravagance. Financial and commercial experts all agree that another year like the present is impossible, but thus far none have suggested a remedy. It rests with the individual and not with the state, and it is up to you, my beloved readers, to apply it. Individual thrift and economy are the only remedy, but no one seems to be applying it.

Preserve Englewood's Trees

A united effort should be made by our people to get rid of the tussock moth before it has a chance to get started this spring. The eggs of this pest may be found underneath the porches and in crevices and about the eaves of the house.

A cheap and yet most effective method of destroying them is this: Saturate the business end of an old broom with kerosene and sweep out the nests of the bug wherever found. The kerosene penetrates the woodwork to a sufficient depth to take care of any and all forms of pest. Keep an eye on the woodwork for several weeks and soak with the kerosene whenever any nests reappear.

New Cashier at First National Bank

Mr. E. S. Hubbell has been chosen cashier of the First National Bank of Englewood and assumed the duties of his important position this week. Mr. Hubbell has had a banking experience covering 38 years and for many years has been a United States bank examiner and is thoroughly versed in every manner of successful banking. He is a genial, courteous gentleman, sociable and pleasant, and already has made hosts of friends in Englewood. Mr. Hubbell has identified himself with the Englewood Commercial and Civic association and was given a hearty greeting at the last meeting.

Too Late for Publication

There is no use sending us "copy" later than Wednesday afternoon, as we cannot possibly publish it. Every week we are compelled to make this announcement, but some people seem to think we can accept "copy" up to Thursday and send it to us, and if not available for the next issue we must consign it to the waste paper basket.

Take luncheon with the Englewood Commercial and Civic Association next Wednesday at the Englewood High School at 12:50, just ten minutes of one.

Save money—Barkey's shoes. adv.

A proposition is on foot to have Stewart ave. made a north and south boulevard, condemning the west half of the street from 61st north to Garfield blvd., and running south through Auburn Park. It would make an elegant boulevard.

The home-bake and delicacy sale for the benefit of the Englewood Hospital Auxiliary will take place in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple, Monday, March 22nd. Ladies, please note the date, deliver your donations and help the good cause along.

Eye Strain—What a bother. Eyes always tired, nerves on edge, whole system affected, comfort sacrificed. There is no need to be afflicted. Our service provides almost instant relief. Dr. J. B. Pattillo, Eyesight Specialist, 456 W. 63rd st. Tel. Englewood 8300.—adv. tf

M. C. Maasberg, upholstering, moving and expressing. 340 W. 63rd st. Phone Normal 673.—adv.

Charles Henry Moore, 526 66th st., a resident of Chicago since 1878, died Wednesday, March 10th after an illness of several months. Mr. Moore graduated from Bowdon College in the class of 1870, being a Phi Beta Kappa, also a D. K. E. He was tutor and instructor for several years in his Alma Mater. For the last 32 years he has been connected with R. G. Dun & Co. Besides his widow, Mrs. Kate B., he leaves a son, Wallace B., and a daughter, Mary Blanche. Funeral services were held last Saturday afternoon at his home, Rev. S. T. Ford officiating. Burial was at Mt. Hope cemetery.

How Utterly Ridiculous

It is to say that "Cunningham is a high price undertaker!"

Regardless of wealth, everyone shares alike in the same efficient service that has characterized "Cunningham" for 25 years. The price of the casket is entirely a matter of your own choice —and the wonderful chapel with the services of an organist is free to all!

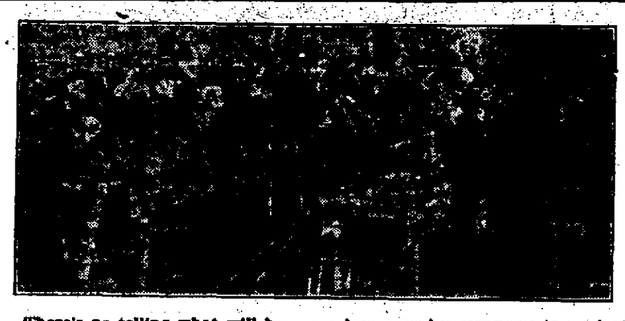
The Kollman family, 9993 Winston ave., have sold their home and expect to move nearer the city.



There's no telling what will happen when a novice carpenter is set loose on a nice pine board.

The Navy's trade schools teach everything from boiler making to watch making. Carpentering is one of the most popular of the trades, and it is one of the most profitable with which to return to civil life.

A three or four years enlistment will give a man time to become a master carpenter, providing always that he is serious and really applies himself to his work.

Five or six years from now some of the above men will be earning good money building houses. Others will be in the service at advanced pay and still improving their knowledge of the trade.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

The Gold Medal Declamatory contest will be held in the Green St. Church this (Friday) evening at 8 P. M. A good program and good music. Three gold medals will be awarded to the winners. The public is invited.

Miss Elenore DeGrasse of 907 63rd St. was a member of the graduating class of the Englewood night school and received her diploma and honors Thursday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Londelius of 6335 Peoria St. leave on Monday for a 6 weeks' tour of the West. They will visit at Spokane, Seattle, Portland, Salt Lake City, Colorado Springs and Denver. Upon their return, they will go immediately to their summer home at Delavan Lake, Wis., for the summer.

When Gen. Wood was making his speech at the Englewood Business Men's Club, he talked direct on business matters. It was rather a disappointment to Sam Phillips as he wanted to bespeak the ambassadorship to Jerusalem and "Billy" McDonnell wants to be representative to Ireland and neither had a chance to broach the subject to the prospective president.

Mr. Fred Wilson of 6340 Halsted St. has returned from Los Angeles, Cal., where he was called by the death of his father, M. K. Wilson, the candy manufacturer. Mrs. Wilson will remain in California settling up the estate and profiting by the rest to rebuild her health.

There has been a big real estate purchase on Halsted St. in the 63rd to 64th Sts. block, west side of street, that sets a record of $2,500 a foot front. It is said Mr. Irwin has sold two store fronts each to Maling Bros., Prodic & Baer and Mr. Bloch. Maling Bros. will take over the store south and Mr. Bloch the store to the north of his place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hayden have returned from their several months' visit in Florida and other points of the sunny South. Hayden is much refreshed and is back at his desk in the real estate office looking chipper as "Bill" Bryan after a political campaign.

First Advertisement.

Although the first periodical paper which contained news in England appeared in May, 1622, the first newspaper advertisement published does not seem to have been until nearly twenty-five years afterward. The advertisement related to the sale of a book "applauded by the Clergy of England."

When Piano Was New.

The first public performance on a piano was at Covent Garden, London, 152 years ago. The invention of the instrument is credited to Cristofalli, an Italian; J. C. Schroter, a German, and Marius, a Frenchman. The first crude pianofortes were made early in the eighteenth century, but for many years they received no serious consideration from musicians. Johannes Zump, a German, established the first piano factory in England, and it was he who built the instrument that was used in Covent Garden.

Story of the Great War.

Mine Sweeper No. 38.

This little boat was one of the fleet of 59 which cleared the North Sea of 55,000 mines.

The Fleet has just returned to this country and was given a big reception in New York City.

These boats would sometimes be out for as long as twenty-five days in the storms and seas for which the North Sea is noted. The work was declared impossible by other navies, but the United States went ahead and completed this work before the scheduled time.

The U. S. Navy once again did the impossible.

The proudest member of the Navy with the Pacific Fleet is "Mick," Admiral Rodman's spaniel. From the tip of his tail to the tip of his nose "Mick" is a real sailor. The rougher the seas come the better he likes it.

"Mick" stuck his head through a life ring, at the photographer's suggestion, and is giving an imitation of a true patriot looking for an argument. Every man on the New Mexico is "Mick's" pal.

LINDEN THEATRE

The rapidly increasing patronage of the popular Linden Theatre is no doubt due to the fact that Manager Thomas Johnson is ever alive to the requirements of his patrons and is clever enough to put over such productions as appeals to them. This is an art in the film game and "Tom" knows the ins and outs, which linked with service, courtesy and close attention to details, and last, but not least, an exceptionally good orchestra and pipe organ, makes the Linden a very popular photo playhouse.

Friday and Saturday, March 19th and 20th. Ethel Clayton and Harrison Ford in "Young Mrs. Winthrop." From the play by Bronson Howard. A story that snuggles close to the heart. Her husband said she wasn't fit to be the mother of his child. She was a pleasure-loving wife and he was a business-loving husband. Only their baby held them together. One night, while they quarreled after a "sporty" party, the child was taken away. Come and see what happened after that! So true to life you'll think of a similar case you know. So tender and fine you can't hold back the tears. So human you'll laugh in sheer delight. The story of two who loved each other dearly, yet blindly wrecked their home.

Sunday and Monday, March 21st and 22nd. Charles Ray in another laugh-provoking comedy, "Alarm Clock Andy." This picture is one of wholesome comedy with many laughs, a bit of pathos and splendid characterizations. It's splendidly human and appealing to all classes. Ray takes the part of a bashful young man, shy and hesitating and what could be more detrimental to a hopeful young salesman. Come and watch him trying to sell motor trucks. Also our usual incidental reels on both days.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 23rd, 24th and 25th. George Fitzmaurice' master production, "On With the Dance," with Mae Murray and David Powell playing star roles. Faster, faster! Slaves of pleasure, lost the spell of Broadway's lights. Driven by the last of unfulfilled desires—on and on—dancing, loving, thirsting for new sensations. A vivid, lavish drama of "life" on New York's Great White Way.

Friday and Saturday, March 26th and 27th. William Farnum in "The Adventurer." The story is a strong one, and Farnum never was more happily cast. Few actors can display the versatility of this star, whose every act is one of studied and dignified art. He plays with abandon and with restraint, and in each instance he is really Don Caesar de Bazan and not William Farnum. He has given us the most perfect screen picture that we have seen; and it is an undiluted joy to see an actor who so completely sinks himself in the part he is playing.

Coming—Nazimova in "Stranger Than Death," and Wallace Reid in "Excuse My Dust."

Man Who Moves the World.

The reasonable man adapts himself to the world; the unreasonable one persists in trying to adapt the world to himself. Therefore all progress depends on the unreasonable man.—Bernard Shaw.

Harvard

A feature of the Harvard theatre now is the par excellence of the music. Not only is the appropriate music of the screen played, but also artistic selections that are drawing many plaudits from the appreciative audience. Some of the solo work is especially worthy of mention and lovers of good music certainly enjoy the work of the symphony orchestra at this popular house.

Friday and Saturday, March 19th and 20th, matinee and night. The magnetic star of the screen, Norma Talmadge, in "A Daughter of Two Worlds." On the Bowery, that region in lower New York, famed in legend and song, is where Miss Norma Talmadge starts her screen story in "A Daughter of Two Worlds." When the picture opens she is openly the daughter of the notorious "Black" Jerry Malone, keeper of one of the worst resorts on the Bowery. She becomes a favorite of society, and then before the story closes she is once more on the Bowery where her great happiness comes to her from the upper world which she has willingly forsaken to save the life of a youthful friend.

Special Friday and Saturday, March 19th and 20th, matinee and night. The magnetic star of the screen, Norma Talmadge, in the greatest and most daring role of her meteoric career as an emotional actress, "A Daughter of Two Worlds." Everyone will laugh and thrill. Many will shed tears of joy or sorrow. Adapted from the famous novel by Leroy Scott. As Jennie, daughter of a dive keeper and associate of crooks who flees her sordid surroundings and finds a new and finer world and the love of a fine, clean man. Miss Talmadge presents the most splendid work of her remarkable career. Also Sidney Smith's "Andy & Mimi" in "Andy Takes His First Dancing Lesson."

Sunday and Monday, March 21st and 22nd, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. The popular star, Charles Ray, in one of his inimitable country boy roles, "Alarm Clock Andy." A delightful story. The rousing tale of a stuttering salesman who starts to work like thirty cents and arrives in love like a million dollars. With the wonderful Ray fun, struggle, charm, sympathy—tugging at your heart. Also the scream 2-part Lloyd comedy. Pathe News and the last episode of "The Great Radium Mystery."

Tuesday and Wednesday, March 23rd and 24th, matinee and night. "The Noted Star, Elsie Ferguson, in "His House in Order." The story is of a pretty wife whose home was not her own. Her husband, grieved by her seeming lightness, thought she wasn't big enough for a real wife's job. She, slighted and hurt, could not understand why the comradeship she craved was missing. Then a shocking revelation opened the eyes of both! A real-life story of one of a million homes. With lovely Elsie Ferguson in a great emotional role.

Special attraction extraordinary, Thursday and Friday, March 25th and 26th, matinee and night. Direct from its successful run in the loop, "On With the Dance," with Mae Murray and David Powell. Who was the masked dancer? No one, not even her husband, guessed her secret. And when it was discovered—the complications that result make an absorbing and unusual drama. See the amazing revenge of a jilted light-o-love. The escapades of a butterfly wife. The shot at a revel that ends the "fools' dance." The butterfly's startling confession in court to save a man. The intrigues in the architect's tower. Sensational scenes in an "after hours" jazz palace. The dance of the Masked Dancer. The poisoning of a happy love by a beautiful, jealous Russian.

E. A. R. THEATRE

Among the many other attractions of the pretty E. A. R. Theatre is the excellent music. The wonderful double pipe organ under the manipulations of the talented artist, Prof Robert Stronach gives a regular artistic concert at each performance. It is real music, the kind music lovers love, and even the everyday admirer of sweet sounds enjoy. Everyone that visits the E. A. R. Theatre speaks of the music and it is well worth while going there to hear it alone.

Two days special attraction, Thursday and Friday, March 18th and 19th. The mammoth production of the beloved American classic, the sensation of the year, Anita Stewart in "In Old Kentucky." Not just a picture, but a great show, full of thrills. Every scene will grip you—hundreds of night riders chasing an assassin, a thrilling horse race, feudist battles, moonshiners fighting, men hurled over cliffs, a fox hunt, a girl on horseback leaping over a chasm, braving death by dynamite and risking her life in a burning barn. A picture of the daring deeds in Old Kentucky, the land of beautiful women and fearless men. See the Night Riders, the great, fierce feudal war, the moonshiner's revenge, the crisis at the grand ball, the villainy of Holten, the awful dynamite plot, the great race scene, the thrilling fox hunt. The famous American classic, adapted to a photoplay that is even greater than the original play. Portrays with intense realism all the gigantic scenes the stage could only suggest.

Saturday, March 20th. Dorothy Dalton in "Black Is White." She married her own husband! He, thinking her dead, believed her another woman! Then the revenge she had planned through bitter years. A story of one woman who was three! Also "A Looney Honeymoon."

Sunday and Monday, March 21st and 22nd. Ethel Clayton in "Young Mrs. Winthrop," a story that snuggles close to the heart. She was a pleasure-loving wife and he was a business-loving husband. Only their baby held them together. One night, while they quarreled after a "sporty" party, the child was taken away. Extra on Sunday—Century Comedy and Screen Magazine. Extra on Monday—Our usual added Features.

Tuesday and Wednesday, March 23rd and 24th. William Farnum in "The Adventurer." Mr. Farnum has given us the most perfect screen picture that we have seen; and it is an undiluted joy to see an actor who so completely sinks himself in the part he is playing.

Thursday, March 25th. Elsie Ferguson in "His House in Order." A new triumph of emotional acting! As the girlish, fun-loving wife—homeless in her own home—nagged by "his people" until she turned like a tigress and rends them, Elsie Ferguson has created a character glowing with warm blood.

Coming—coming—coming—Friday and Saturday, March 26th and 27th. Norma Talmadge in her latest success, "A Daughter of Two Worlds." Also a dandy Sunshine Comedy.

Sunday and Monday, March 28th and 29th. Charles Ray in his latest and best, "Alarm Clock Andy." Also Charlie Chaplin in one of his best, "The Count." Here are two stars that are hard to equal. Miss this event and you miss it!

Tuesday and Wednesday, March 30th and 31st. The world's greatest actress, Nazimova, as Sigrid, the dancer, in "Stronger Than Death."

Thursday and Friday, April 1st and 2nd. Direct from the loop. Mae Murray and David Powell in the biggest sensation of the hour, "On With the Dance." It's well worth waiting for. Every scene—well—see it.

TULANE THEATRE

Pictures will be given the proper musical setting by the Tulane Ladies' Trio Orchestra. These young ladies have just returned from a successful concert tour and there is a treat in store for lovers of good music.

Saturday, March 20th, 2 to 11 P. M. The dare-devil Tom Mix in "The Feud." Billy West 2-act comedy.

Sunday, March 21st, 2 to 11 P. M. Miss Thomas has been provided with the role of Gloria Dawn, the brilliant and beautiful star of New York's famous "Midnight Revue," a role which fits her like the proverbial glove, and which recalls the days when this charming star was a firm favorite of the "Follies."

Briefly, the story tells of the strange experiences which befall Gloria Dawn, after her apartment is entered at midnight by a strange man who admits himself with his own key. After gaining admittance the man collapses with brain fever, and, in trying to discover his identity, the whole course of Gloria's life is changed.

Monday, March 22nd, 6.45 to 11 P. M. Bessie Barriscale in "A Trick of Fate." Also Pathe Comedy.

Tuesday, March 23th, 6:45 to 11 P. M. Lillian Gish and Rosika Dolly in "The Tiger Girl." What makes "Tiger Girl" stand far above the usual run of pictures besides its notable cast and still more notable directors is the unusual story. We are a bit tired of virtue coming out triumphant in the usual way. We still want virtue to triumph, but we don't want it to have an easy victory. In "Tiger Girl," the wife, portrayed by Lillian Gish, loses in her battle to hold her husband's love. The song of the siren is too sweet for the husband to resist. The end is unusual. Also Supreme Comedy, Pathe Review.

Wednesday, March 24th, 6.45 to 11 p. m. Wm. S. Hart in the 5-act drama, "Between Men," with House Peters and a notable cast. Reviewing the recent loop run of this picture Mae Tinee in the Tribune said: "One of the best of the W. S. Hart pictures." Also Lyons and Moran comedy and Bray Pictograph.

Thursday, March 25th, 6.45 to 11 p. m. Will Rogers in "Almost a Husband." "The funny man with the funny smile." When you see him you will agree he is the happiest, snappiest, peppiest male on the screen.

EMPRESS THEATRE

A feature of the amusement life in Englewood is a visit to the Empress either the matinees or the evening, and few indeed are the Englewood people who do not make this part of their program at least once a week. The excellence of the shows makes the house well known in all parts of the city and nightly parties may be seen from all parts of the south side as well as the west and north parts of the city. The diversity of the programs, specially fine products of the films, as well as the star head liners of vaudeville make an entertainment that cannot grow tiresome or monotonous. The very best "loop" attractions are booked at the Empress, and they are shown here weekly, in fact a booking at the Empress is letter cachet to the best circuits in the land, and most of the best make it a point to stipulate a date at this popular house. Manager Harry Mitchell is one of the real showmen of the day. He knows about every professional on the circuits and he knows how to get them for his house, hence the limits of his audiences are only measured by the seating capacity at about every performance. The house is very modern in construction, is comfortable winter or summer, perfectly ventilated and always clean and sanitary, so that the ladies make it a habit to include a visit to the Empress as part of their Halsted St. shopping trips. A good show all the time, and at popular prices is their motto, and you can rely upon them every day in the week.

HALSTED THEATRE

The Halsted Theatre at 62nd and Halsted Sts. has the reputation of putting on the most popular of the latest films, the snappy, vigorous up-to-the-minute kind that grip and bind and make you remember the show long after you have gone home. Manager Frank is one of the shrewdest of bookers and the fact that he has run a certain film at his house is evidence of its excellence.

Friday, March 19th, the Halsted Theatre will start another of their famous serials. The Screaming Shadow," the most mystifying and most sensational of all serials. This serial is crowded with more thrills, swifter action, and deeper mystery than ever before found in a serial. The first episode "The Cry in the Dark" features a notable cast with Ben Wilson and Neva Gerber as the stars in title roles. Surrounding Mr. Wilson and Neva Gerber, who is co-starred with him in this serial Mr. Wilson has coupled practically the same cast of players that appeared with him in his serial, "The Trail of the Octopus"—William Dever, Howard Crampton and William Carroll. In addition to these will be seen Fred Gamble and Joseph Ghard, one of the best known character actors of the serial drama; Frances Terry, Pansy Porter, Claire Mile and Joseph Manning. Ben Wilson is seen in "The Screaming Shadow" in the role of John Rand, noted scientist and archaeologist. Miss Gerber is playing in the role of a newspaper woman, who is heiress to millions, but prefers the work on account of its adventure and romance. Mr. Crampton has the role of the millionaire head of the Eternal Life Syndicate. Joseph Ghard, leading character man has the part of Baron Volska Prime Minister of Burgonia. Frances Terry has the part of Nadia, high priestess of the virgins of eternal youth.

NATIONAL THEATRE

The attraction at the National Theatre, commencing Sunday matinee, Mar. 21st, will be the laughing success of the season, "Here Comes the Bride," direct from its successful run at the George M. Cohan Theatre, New York City. The story is of a young lawyer who has everything at stake on one big case and is about to elope with a society belle, when the case at stake is postponed.

The angry father, learning of the intended elopement, proceeds to raise the devil with everyone concerned and succeeds in getting his daughter to swear the engagement is a mistake.

The young lawyer is very much broken up, everything looks black for him, when like a thunderbolt from a clear sky comes a proposition that will net him a large sum of "easy" money.

But the "BRIDE," a lemon of the choicest picking, refuses to give her newest husband up to anyone.

The real sweetheart, who only said what she did to fool her father, runs away from home at the first chance, coming to her fiance's office, ready to marry him at a moment's notice, but alas it is too late, he has already taken the fatal step.

Now, we must get things straightened out, and that—well's that's the play, it can't be told, you must see it in order to enjoy the comedy, for of course it's all comedy, and rather different than anything offered this season. To be sure of getting the seats you like best, order now

"Let Your Ears Judge!"

THE real test of a phonograph is TONE. The most wonderful cabinet, the motor of highest perfection, would be worse than useless without that most invaluable asset—a clear, sweet, melodius, musically true TONE. We have, what we consider, an invaluable test. It is accurate, convincing and settles once and for all time any question about the superiority of one phonograph to the other that may be in your mind. It is entirely simple and it is unnecessary for you to be a masterful judge of music to appreciate it. Here it is: We have all of the standard instruments on our floor, the EDISON, the VICTOR, the COLUMBIA and the BRUNSWICK. Take any make of record, try it on any or all of the machines and choose the one that YOU think plays the record best. In other words "let your ears judge." That sounds fair, doesn't it? Of course it is, since all that we ask of you is that you listen and tell us which one you think superior.

Businessmen Get Together

It was an enthusiastic gathering of business and professional men who met Friday evening in the assembly hall of the Metropolitan Insurance Co. at 63rd st. and Yale ave. A regular gab fest brought pertinent and boosting remarks from nearly everyone present. The dues of the association were reduced to $2.50 for six months or $5 annually. The following officers were elected unanimously: President, C. A. Purdy of the Electric Bakeries; vice president, Sime J. Koehler of F. F. Porter Co.; secretary, C. Frank Berg the men's furnisher; treasurer, W. A. Stansbury, cashier of the Englewood State Bank. Directors: Irv. Penhallegon of Hocking & Penhallegon; John Mutter the electrician and David Levin, the merchant tailor. A committee was appointed to wait upon President Davis of the Board of Education and as a consequence an order has been issued that no discrimination be made against local photographers for the graduating class work and that pupils may go where they see fit to have their work done and not be compelled to go to the "loop" studio as commanded in the school publication.

Wednesday at 12:50 half a hundred members attended the luncheon at the Englewood High School and enjoyed a real treat. The cafeteria style was a bit strange, but everyone selected what they desired and a better cooked, more wholesome or daintier luncheon was never served, and at such moderate cost that most of the fellows would have gone back and tried it over again if their capacity would have allowed.

The committee on the Wentworth ave. and 63rd st. sewer reported progress and the entire membership are asked to meet in room 104, City Hall, to attend the session of the authorities Monday at 9:30 a. m. Most of them will take the "L" at 9 o'clock at 63rd and Harvard.

The street cleaning matter was referred to a committee that promises the streets will be cleaned immediately and concerted action will be taken with the 31st ward superintendent.

Everyone is invited to attend the luncheon next Wednesday, and please remember the time is 12:50 exactly. A good speaker will be present.

Woman's Auxiliary of Englewood Hospital

The regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and board will be held as usual at the hospital, Friday, March 19th, at 1:30 and 2 P. M. A full attendance is urged.

The return game of the Lindblom and Englewood faculty indoor baseball was played at Englewood, Friday, March 12. The score was 27-12 in favor of Lindblom.

Boys' and Girls' Meetings

On Tuesday, March 16, Rev. Arthur D. Klontz of Morgan Park gave the boys a fine talk in Junior Hall and Mrs. Mayer-Oakes talked to the girls in Senior Hall. "Red" Jackson of the University of Chicago was to have addressed the boys but was unable to come.

Personal News

Mrs. Dracass writes from Mobile, Ala., where she and Dr. Dracass are visiting:

"We have been here for some time. 'They say' there has been no such cold weather since 1892 and that in twenty-five years not as much snow as we have had this morning—March 8. Regular northern March weather. Even on sunshiny days the temperature is low."

"Most sincere regards to all my friends and former colleagues, and best wishes for your enjoyment of the new building."

Alumni News

Robert Collins and Eva Kohl have been elected into the Dramatic Club at the University of Chicago.

William Holton has returned from France and is now at the University of Chicago.

Evening School Graduation

Thursday evening, March 11, the graduation exercises of the High School and eighth grade classes of the Englewood Evening School were held. The program consisted of music by the High School orchestra, songs by the Lindblom Octette and speeches, "The Value of Evening High School Courses" by Assistant Superintendent C. E. De Butts, and "The Development of the Evening School" by Principal James E. Armstrong. The program was followed by exhibits of school work from these departments: Chemistry, comptometer, woodwork, auto mechanics, typewriting, millinery, sewing, oil painting, business English, bookkeeping, free hand drawing, mechanical drawing and cooking.

The graduates of High School courses were: Josephine Barry, Walter G. Anderson, Arthur Huffnagle, Charles E. Hand, Max Projansky, Milton Irving Burbaum, Carrie Belle Hires, Edward Milton Hoffman, Joseph Lawrence Shanahan, Garrett J. Sartee, James Kenny, Myrtle Thurston, Mary Wiles, Henrietta Witowsky.

Army Recruiting in Englewood

The army recruiting station located at 6001 S. Halsted st. will be kept open evenings until 9 o'clock every night in the week except Sunday. A member of the recruiting detail will be on duty there to take care of all applications for enlistment or to answer any questions relative to the war risk insurance allotments, travel pay and bonuses. The one year enlistments in the army are being discontinued and it will soon be too late for any one to enlist for the short term. Already all branches except the artillery, engineers and chemical warfare service have been closed for the one-year period and it is expected these will soon be closed also. Any previous service men who are considering re-enlistment should not delay as it will soon be too late to take on for anything less than three years. The Englewood station has made an excellent record since its establishment and it is earnestly desired by the recruiting officers that this record be maintained.

Attention of Our Ministers

Pastors of all churches or anyone uthorized, is invited to send us church notices of services, etc. We ask that they be brief and to the point. We prefer that they be renewed weekly giving subject of sermons, etc., but insist that they be not allowed to grow stale, and unless ordered otherwise, we shall remove a notice that has been unchanged for more than a month. We publish all such notices free, and ask that they be sent in no later than Wednesday noon.

Camp Fire Items

Mrs. H. E. Duval, 310 73rd st., entertained the Chittamangos for their social evening. Mrs. Duval, the mother of a clever young dancing maiden, was assisted by Mrs. Weidner and Mrs. Wright. The girls were entertained by many noted singers, being especially pleased with Mr. John McCormack (on the Aeoleon). Full justice was given by the group and guardian to the tempting feast.

The Gideons made North Congregational church their headquarters and were served dinner by Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Griggs, Mrs. Urquhart, Mrs. Simmons, Miss Griggs and girls of Kewanee Alan.

Council Fire at the Chittamongo Wigwam Friday evening. Honors are to be awarded to girls for faithful service.

The Kewanee Alan held a Council Fire at which mothers of the girls were honor guests at their tribal wigwam. Cheers were sung and symbolic names awarded to Mrs. A. Stover, Mrs. Young, Mrs. J. Griggs, Mrs. Willis Stone and Mrs. Koelling. Hywesus, Wamuskado and Paremathe sang a song to the mothers. Give Service honors were awarded the girls by the guardian, "Alahi." Mr. Thornburg was called to the council and was made Comrade of the Fire by Pippsissewa (Jewel Hussy), assistant to guardian acting for the girls. Mr. Thornburg pledged his loyalty to the girls and promised to follow the Give Service law of the Fire.

Don't forget to get on your gown and take parents and friends to the eighth birthday rally of the Camp Fire Girls at Ashland Auditorium, March 27th, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Hatfield will present Indian songs, using our own stage settings.

Mrs. Thornburg spent an enjoyable afternoon Tuesday with Mrs. C. J. Musser, 221 72nd st. She there met two charming Chittamongos who were quite clever.

News—news—send in news of your Camp Fire. Work, play, good times, councils, Mr. Sullivan will print them all. Send to Mrs. C. C. Thornburg, 302 W. 61st st., or to Englewood Times, marking Camp Fire items.

Chorister's Musical Observer

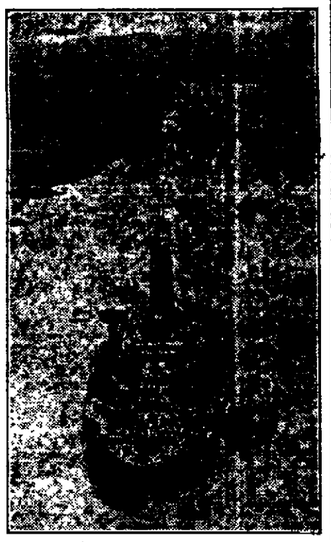
He was a splendid manly fellow and his loss is to be deeply deplored.

NEARING CULEBRA CUT.



One of Uncle Sam's battle-wagons going through the Panama Canal. This view was taken near Culebra Cut from a Navy seaplane.

The little tug hardly looks large enough to chaperon a battleship, does it? But then the tug is a part of the U. S. Navy too.

Size isn't always the most important thing. The men of the Navy have learned that brains amount to a great deal more.

Women's Gymnasium

Last week the volley ball games resulted as follows: The "A" team defeated Grand Crossing 79 to 30 and the "B" team lost to Grand Crossing. The "unlimited" team won from Palmer by a score of 71 to 68 and the "limited" team was defeated by Ogden 63 to 54.

This week the "unlimited" team will play Bessemer Park, the "B" team will play Cornell Park and the "A" team will play Ogden Park; all the games being at Hamilton Park.

Saturday the evening classes of the gymnasium gave a masquerade. Mrs. Cady received the prize for the most artistic costume and Katherine Cornman took the prize for the most amusing costume. Marcella Healy won a prize for being able to put points on a stick of candy in record time.

Men's Gymnasium

In the basket ball games the 140 pound team, playing in the preliminaries for the 140 pound championship, defeated Armour Square 29 to 22, thus putting them in the finals. This week the 140 pound team must play McKinley, Hardin and Palmer in the finals. All of these games will be played at Grand Crossing.

Hamilton Park Library

The librarian reports the receipt of the following new books:

Fiction

The Fortieth Door, by M. H. Bradley; Michael Forth, by Mary Johnston; Conrad In Quest of His Youth, by Leonard Merrick with introduction by James M. Barrie; Typhoon's Secrets, by Sol N. Sheridan.

Non-Fiction

War With Germany, by Leonard Porter Ayres; Anthology of Magazine Verse for 1918, by W. S. B. Braithwaite; Everyman's Chemistry, by Ellwood Hendrick; The Economic Consequences of Peace, by John Maynard Keynes; Creative Chemistry, by Edwin Emery Slosson; Lessons In Practical Electricity, Etc., by Coates Walton Swoope; The New Europe; Geography and Industrial Studies, by Allen.

Shooting the Mines.

The U. S. Mine Sweeping Detachment has just returned from its work in the North Seas. The ever present danger of floating mines was counteracted by the sharp eyesight of the men who were behind the guns. Their job was to pick off the mines as they appeared and explode them by direct hits. The lives of the other men aboard and the safety of the ship depended on their keenness.

A large proportion of the 55,000 mines laid in the North Seas by the U. S. Navy was destroyed in this way.

This is just one of the jobs that comes in the career of a U. S. sailor; one of the experiences that gives him a grip on himself and makes him a regular fellow.

A Daughter of Two Worlds

An artistic play of shadows and sunshine.
Everyone will laugh and thrill. Many will shed tears of joy or sorrow.

Miss Talmadge rises to the heights of her wonderful career as Jennie Malone, daughter of a dive keeper of the slums, who, defying the clinging touch of evil companions, pursued and persecuted by the police, still rises superior to her birth and environment to an honored place in society and wins the love and respect of a splendid man.

A picture with lots of action—not a dragging moment . . . . melodramatic punch and emotional intensity with telling contrast.

The Vernon Theatre

The Vernon theatre, located at 61st St. and Vernon Ave. in the Washington Park district, has been purchased by James F. Barry, better known as "Jim" Barry, one of the best known and most popular men in the Auburn Park and Englewood districts, and he extends a cordial invitation to his friends to come over and give his new house the "once over." It is a pretty 800-seat house, with all of the latest and best improved movie appliances, projectors, screens and all that makes for the best showing of the best pictures. It will be of interest to Englewood people to know that "Jimmy" Coston of the "Harvard" does all the booking for the house, so the patrons may rest assured of the best in the film world at the earliest possible showing. From this issue the Vernon will be regularly represented in the Englewood Times theatre pages, and a short synopsis of the coming week's attractions given. Watch for the Vernon, as "Jim" Barry will make it one of the finest and best on the south side.

U.S. NAVY

With the Fleet

When you can look out over the stern of a big dreadnaught and see a line of regular he-ships following in battle formation, you just can't help swelling up and letting out a couple of man-sized roars.

A fair sea, a good breeze, and a line of battleships making fifteen to twenty knots, present the most inspiring sight any man can ask on this earth.

Living with such experiences turns boys into men, gives them a grip on life, makes real stuff of them. They work hard, they play hard, and we know that, if necessary, they can fight hard.

Learn about your wonderful Navy. Be proud of it. It is respected by every country in the world. And it is yours; every bit your Navy.

Woodlawn Theatre

The palatial and gorgeous Woodlawn, just on the the other side of Cottage Grove Ave., has a large Englewood patronage. It is so convenient that it almost becomes a "home house" and the excellences of their music, the programs of their symphony orchestra, and their excellent plays is adding to their clientele weekly. Englewood people all feel at home at the Woodlawn, and the rich elegance of the lobby and house has a warm welcoming feeling for one. The program for the coming week is as follows:

Last two days, Friday and Saturday, March 19th and 20th, continuous, 2 to 11:30 P. M., Charles Ray in "Alarm Clock Andy." He had no more "punch" than the old office cat. But he was such a harmless, good-natured soul that—well, the boss let him stay along, until—

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday—three big days—March 21st, 22nd and 23rd. Continuous, 2 to 11:30 P. M. daily, Nazimova in "Stronger Than Death." She married the man she hated in order to shield the man she loved. What was the reason? Why should Sigrid, the beautiful dancer, favorite in the London music halls, make her supreme sacrifice in the heart of India? See Nazimova, the superb, in her latest and greatest production, "Stronger Than Death," and yield to the spell of a love story that quickens the pulses.

Starting Wednesday, March 24th, for four eventful days, The attraction extraordinary, Mae Murray and David Powell in "On With the Dance." Founded on the play of the same name by Michael Morton, photoplay by Ouida Bergere. See the intrigues in the architect's tower, the escapades of a butterfly wife, the startling jazz palace scenes, the dance of the masked dancer, the shot that ends the "Fool's" dance. Every scene a sensation!

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

No theatre house in the city has a clenger reputation for good shows than the Marlowe. Besides having a regular program of unusual excellence, they are always in the front rank with special attractions and features of unusual merit. Under the efficient management of Harry Crawford, the Marlowe is the house of merit that attracts all members of the family. The mother and father, the big brother and the sister enjoy it as well as the tiddlers on the special Saturday matinees when something especially choice is served for the little ones who get nice, clean, wholesome amusement at nominal prices, hence the Marlowe is the family theatre.

The regular programs are: Every Monday night the local hat contest, at which a beautiful silk piece is awarded some lady, whose name is left in the audience and the lucky lady wears a beautiful hat home. On Tuesday nights come the local song contest as well as that of the professional song publishers' song revue. This is an added attraction also, as on both nights there are five or more professional vaudeville acts with feature pictures. On Wednesday and Thursday nights of each week, in addition to the feature pictures and other attractions they have a delightful musical comedy, something really good and attractive, a bevy of beautiful songsters and dancers with some of the rarest costuming and scenery events shown in the city. On Fridays they offer the professional vaudeville revue at which seven or more artists present their acts before an audience of managers who select their talent for the coming week's bookings. On Saturdays and Sundays matinees both days they always have at least six big vaudeville acts, feature pictures and specialties that make them the gala nights of the week. The Marlowe always has a good show and you will enjoy it and may bring your entire family to help you enjoy it.

A Tremendous Spectacle

Every scene will grip you—hundreds of night riders, chasing an assassin, a thrilling horse race, feudist battles, moonshiners fighting, men hurled over cliffs, a fox hunt, a girl on horseback leaping over a chasm, braving death by dynamite and risking her life in a burning barn.

A picture of the daring deeds in Old Kentucky, the land of beautiful women and fearless men.

A Story That Snuggles Close to the Heart"

She was a pleasure-loving wife and he was a business-loving husband. Only their baby held them together.

One night, while they quarreled after a "sporty" party, the child was taken away. Come and see what happened after that!

So true to life, you'll think of similar cases you know.

So tender and fine, you can't hold back the tears.

So human, you'll laugh in sheer delight.

A Romantic Drama With Thrill and Dash

The story is a strong one, and Farnum never was more happily cast. Few actors can display the versatility of this star, whose every act is one of studied and dignified art. He plays with abandon and with restraint, and in each instance he is really a Don Caesar de Bazan and not William Farnum.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe Hippodrome has long been acknowledged as the real amusement center of Englewood and under the present management it has even surpassed its past reputation. The constant changes of program are such as to make a new show every night, and the features are the best shown anywhere. Constantly on the lookout for all that is good and new, they secure the brightest sketches and musical comedy, as well as vaudeville acts that come to but few outside houses. The big attraction for next week will be Wednesday and Thursday, March 24th and 25th, the five-reel feature picture, "Lasca," with Frank Mayo and Edith Roberts starring in the title roles. The story: Like thunder in the mountains came the roar of stampeding cattle. A horse-length in front of the crazed animals rode Lasca, the Mexican girl who loved Moreland. At her side rode Moreland. One of them must die. Back at the hacienda was a girl from the east, a guest of the Moreland family, but a flirt. Lasca believed that Moreland loved the girl. She chose to die to save the man she loved for the heart of another woman. It was for that reason that Lasca threw herself over the prostrate body of Moreland and suffered the grinding hoofs of fifty thousand cattle to pound her sorrowing heart into stillness. Edith Roberts appears as Lasca and Frank Mayo as Moreland.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Ladies' Bargain Week Day Matinees Seats 15c

Lovers of good clean comedy, wholesome music, intermingled with clever dancing, will secure their seats ahead of time for the opening performance of the "Grown Up Babies" if they don't want to be disappointed. They will be at the Englewood Theatre Sunday matinee, March 21st. This company is put together for fun and you will witness the cleanest and most up-to-date burlesque show of the season. The cast has been carefully selected, special attention paid to the staging of the entire production. As a guarantee of this, Wm. Vail was given the task of producing the "Grown Up Babies" and every little detail has been minutely looked after and nothing overlooked that would have a tendency to mar the performance.

The cast includes Bobby Wilson and Jack Callahan, who need no introduction to patrons of burlesque; Helen Gibson, a prima donna of sweet voice and rare personality; Ethel Sheppard, a soubrette, new to the burlesque world; Emma Wilson, Henry Guertin, Geo. Broadhurst and Ed. Golden. The musical numbers are all new and catchy and in some cases are exclusive.

THE VERNON THEATRE

When James Barry, the Englewood man, bought the Vernon, his many home friends knew he would give a good show and many have formed the habit of visiting his parlor play house. At first it was a matter of compliment to "Jim," but soon the excellence of the program and the comfortable house made it a habit and as a result the Vernon is drawing a very liberal patronage from Englewood and this vicinity. The bookings at the Vernon are among the very best, all the big features are secured and no passe or stale bills will be seen, and we take pleasure in commending the excellent house to our readers.

Friday and Saturday, March 19th and 20th. Anita Stewart, the beautiful stage star in one of the greatest photoplays ever produced, "In Old Kentucky." One of the real old American classics, gains fresh laurels from its screen presentation. The little Kentucky mountain girl rides to victory on the back of a beautiful race horse, and wins happiness and fortune. A fire; the race; the feudal fights, and the famous Night Riders are but a few of the events pictured. Don't miss it.

Sunday, March 21st, continuous, 2 to 11:30 P. M. We take pleasure in recommending the great star, Irene Castle, in "The Amateur Wife," a master picture that every man and woman, every boy and girl, every picture fan can and will enjoy. Inoffensive, superbly acted elaborately set and withal gripping with interest. Also usual comedy features.

Monday, March 22nd, Owen Moore in "Sooner or Later." The plot hinges on two or three cases of mistaken identity that will keep you guessing as to who is who. It is a light, entertaining farce which will sure provoke much laughter.

EMPRESS THEATRE

When anyone tells of something witty and sharp, or hums a pretty new song, the usual challenge is "Did you hear that at the Empress?" It is generally understood that the brightest and best in song or vaudeville acts will be seen there and there are no disappointments. In addition to the smart vaudeville, Manager Harry Mitchell books the very best first run of pictures and screen attractions that make a show in themselves.

Few houses have the facilities of securing the bookings of the top liners that the Empress gets. Manager Mitchell is known as a veteran show man, and most artists coming to Chicago want a date at the Empress, and the booking agents act accordingly, hence many of the best big circuit people who are seldom seen outside of the biggest "loop" houses are regular ones at the Empress. The splendid size of the house, it's many seats and large seating capacity, enables them to play expensive attractions that a smaller house could not in safety attempt. Added to this is the reliable attendance which insures a good audience at every performance, matinee and evening and every seat is filled by the appreciative people who want to keep abreast of the times in things new, novel and entertaining. Special matinees for ladies who go to 63rd and Halsted on their shopping trips are offered and always some dainty bit of the program is for their benefit, that is why the Empress is the favorite with the ladies. Every show at the Empress is a good one, and you will spend a pleasant afternoon or evening any time you favor them with your presence.

Barber Shop.

Some hotel! Everything at cost, and done with the very finest equipment. Join the Navy, and forget the tips.

Can you imagine a first class shave for a nickel, a hair cut for a dime and a massage, shampoo, and all the trimmings in proportion?

It's almost luxurious, and now that the electric potato peelers have come in, Jack finds himself with a lot more time to improve himself. He doesn't need to wash his own clothes any more either, an electric laundry will take care of them at a price which is almost ridiculous.

This view of the busy barber shop on board one of the U. S. dreadnaughts will give us all some idea of the way the men in the Navy live. Only the best is good enough for our sailors.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

What Have We Done Today?

We shall do so much in the years to come,
But what have we done today?
We shall give our gold in a princely sum,
But what did we give today?
We shall lift the heart and dry the tear,
We shall plant a hope in the place of fear,
We shall speak the words of love and cheer,
But what did we speak today?

We shall be so kind in the after a-while,
But what have we been today?
We shall bring to each lonely life a smile,
But what have we brought today?
We shall give to truth a grander Birth,
And to steadfast faith a deeper worth,
We shall feed the hungering souls of earth,
But whom have we fed today?

We shall reap such joys in the by and by,
But what have we sown today?
We shall build our mansions in the sky,
But what have we built today?
'Tis sweet in idle dreams to bask,
But here and now do we do our task?
Yes, this is the thing our souls must ask:
"What have we done today?"

It is better to have a fool friend than a wise enemy.

Casey advises: "If yez do be trubbled wid insomnia go to slape an' fergit ut."

A wise man often has all the money he needs, but a fool never has enough.

Casey says: "Whin a woman tills me thot awl min are alike, Oi wonders how the divil she found it out."

"The mon thot wurks fer luv do be havin' moighty uncertain pay days," is the wisdom of Mr. Casey.

Some men want to be president and others want to hold the "chair" in lodge and wear a high sounding title and a few gaudy robes.

It is coming close to the time when we spade up the back lot to feed our neighbors' chickens high priced garden seed.

There may be some things in dispute over the Irish question, but one thing is sure, if Sergeant Prendergast isn't made at least a member of the new Republic, there is no justice in earth.

Most everyone, if they behave themselves, get their names in the paper three times: when they are born, married, and die. If they don't behave they may get a whole lot more publicity, but a fellow is ordinarily lucky to escape so easily.

A man we know went to a certain physician and in a husky voice told of suffering with a bad cold. The physician stopped him peremptorily scribbled off a prescription and sent him to a drug store, where he was handed a package, charged $3 for it and opening it found a half pint of "red eye." The joke is that the man is a teetotaler and has not used liquor in twenty years. The other joke is that he brought the bottle to a newspaper office—the bottle is still there.

Casey and Moriarity were watching the bricklayers on a wall when Casey asked: "Say, Moriarity, kin yez tell me phwat kapes thim brick togither?" "Sure, Oi kin," said Moriarity, "'tis the mortar shure." "Not on yer loife," says Casey. "'Tis the mortar thot kapes thim apart," then he gave his friend a dig that dislocated his third rib.

It was just after the serious quarrel and the usual "make up" process, and the loving one asked, "But why did you refuse me just now, dearie?" "Oh, I just wanted to see how you would act," answered the mysterious maid. "But I might have gone out without waiting for an explanation," said the looney lover. "No, you wouldn't," said the coy maiden, "I had locked the door." And they spooned some more.

The really and truly best aldermen I have ever seen are those who are candidates for re-election.

Gerald T. Sullivan

From Toul to German Rhine

This most interesting subject is that chosen by Dr. Rufus A. White for his illustrated lecture next Sunday evening at the People's Liberal church. From his extended acquaintance with that country and its peoples, no one is better able to speak on the subject. Added to this fact, Dr. White visited the land during the heat of the war, and after the armistice before the terrible effects were obliterated or in any way ameliorated, hence his own camera and his keen insight into things as they were, their past and present history, and the political and social bearings upon this territory are an open book to the eloquent lecturer, and no one possesses to a greater extent the capacity of placing his audience on the ground floor of understanding and actually seeing the land and events he speaks of. In the morning Dr. White will preach on "The Curse of Meroz," an unusual and most promising subject. Dr. White's audience are in for a treat Sunday at both morning and evening services and everybody is most cordially welcome to either or both.

"The Greatest Thing in America"

At the Englewood Sunday Evening Club next Sunday evening, Englewood people will have a grand opportunity to learn what this may be, as Dr. Elmer Allen Bess, the learned president of Macallister college of St. Paul, Minn., will tell them all about it. Dr. Bess has a world-wide reputation as a lecturer and a scholar and he has chosen a subject wide enough to give his eloquence the scope it must needs have for so important a subject. In these wild days of bolshevism and I. W. W.ism it is good to imbibe some good old fashioned Americanism, the broad and liberal kind that admits of the good of all for all, yet bars the intruder and the native born who would overthrow our grand government for some new fangled chimerical ideas that have proven disastrous for those nations who have attempted them. It will be an interesting lecture, and one that we all may profit by. The soloist for the evening will be Florence Lang, the soprano, who will assist the Englewood Sunday Evening Club choir under the direction of Glenwood Preble. Be sure to go early and secure a good seat.

Up-to-Date Youth.

Bobby's father asked him when Moses lived. Bobby said he did not know. His father then read from a book: "Moses 4,000 B. C." and then asked Bobby why he did not know when Moses lived. Bobby replied: "Oh, I thought that was his telephone number."

Englewood Woman's Club

At the morning meeting of the E. W. C. on March 15th an interesting program was furnished by the department of music; a trio from the Chicago Symphony Orchestra played a number of selections, and Miss Phyllis Fergus, Chicago composer, played her musical setting for Alfred Noyes' poem, "The Highwayman," with Mrs. Samson as reader.

At the afternoon business meeting the report of the nominating committee was read, and nominations were made from the floor, resulting in the selection of the names to appear on the ballot for the election of officers which occurs on April 19th.

On March 22nd at 10:45 the department of literature will offer six "Shakespearelogues" in which club members in costume will take part. All club members may bring guests to this morning program.

At 2 o'clock Baroness Huard of France will speak, her subject being "Americans From the French Point of View." Baroness Huard, who is the author of "My Home on the Field of Honor" and other books written during the war, is a noted woman and should have a large audience to welcome her.

Hamilton Park Woman's Club

Tuesday, March 23, at 2:15 the drama department of the Hamilton Park Woman's Club will present a play by W. S. Ranson, entitled, "In the Spring." Sabina Cassagrande, harpist, will render a brief program. Board meeting in the morning at 10:30. Thursday evening, March 25, at 8:15, in the Field House, the club will reproduce three one-act plays which were given earlier in the year, to which the community is cordially invited. Mabelle Cass Cornell, director.

The Fortnightly of Englewood

The Fortnightly of Englewood will meet March 23rd with Mrs. Geo. Eggers at the studio, 414 Normal pkwy. Mr. Herman Rosse of the Chicago Art Institute will speak on "The Art of Holland."

Cake and Delicacy Sale

A bakery and delicatessen sale will be given at the Englewood Woman's Club Monday, March 22, by the ladies of the Englewood Hospital Auxiliary, for the benefit of the new nurse's home.

Members and friends of the auxiliary are requested to co-operate. Donations and patronage solicited.

Leave donations in basement of the Masonic temple Monday, March 22nd, before 3:30 p. m.

American Legion Auxiliary

The charter will arrive this week and all mothers, wives and sisters of members of any post may become a member of the Englewood Auxiliary. Notices of first meeting will be sent to those sending their names to the temporary secretary, Mrs. S. L. Hollahan, 710 W. 69th st.

Richard D. Hughes Will Lecture on the Arab in Africa

What do you know about Arabs? What have they contributed to science and civilization? The mystic character of these people has supplied wonderful material for the writer of fiction and you will be interested to hear narrated the story of personal observations made by Mr. Hughes during his sojourn in Africa last summer. He will illustrate his story by pictures which he took of the native life of the Arab as he saw it on the desolate sand plains of Northern Africa on the border lands of the Great Sahara Desert. The Bedouin Arab possesses a charm all his own and you will get glimpses of his social customs, commercial life and his mystic religion of Islam through the eye of the camera at the Emerald Avenue Presbyterian Church next Sunday afternoon at 4:30. This is the beginning of a series of illustrated lectures of European travel by Mr. Hughes. Watch for the dates.

"The County Fair"

The ladies of the Englewood Hospital Auxiliary have given much time and thought to making the County Fair, March 25-26, a real entertainment as well as a place to buy beautiful and useful merchandise.

A wonderful bluebird quilt, a lovely doll, a bed set and other things are to be raffled off.

Exceptionally good music has been procured for the dance each evening.

Entertainers of a high order, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Fulton and Mrs. Bannister, will give a continuous program each evening in the banquet hall. Light refreshments will be served.

Financial Creed for All

Every individual in the Seventh district is being urged by the War Savings organization to live up to a financial creed during 1920. Following is the creed suggested by the government:

I believe in the United States of America.

My opportunity and hope depend upon her future.

I believe that her stability and progress rest upon the industry and thrift of her people.

Therefore, I will work hard and live simply.

I will spend less than I earn.
I will use my earnings with care.
I will save consistently.
I will invest thoughtfully.

To increase the financial strength of my country and myself, I will buy government securities.

I will hold above barter the obligations my country thus incurred.

I will do these things to insure the greatness of America's future.

Cloth From Bark of Tree.

The famous "tapa" cloth of Polynesia is made from the inner bark of the paper mulberry. When of the finest quality it is bleached to snowy whiteness and fine as muslin. In tropical Africa the inner bark of a leguminous tree is utilized in the same way. Indeed, it is surprising to learn how widely tree barks are employed as material for clothing the world over. And in the West Indies grows the "lace-bark tree," which yields a delicate tissue so like lace that many articles of feminine adornment are made from it.
